

Southern Pride Terrain #1:
TREBLE CONE: AS SERIOUS AS YOU WANT TO GET

TC could equally stand for 'Terrain Central'; the choice and scope here is amazing, hands down the best big mountain resort options available in NZ. With some hiking your fear factor is the limit. This great angle shot of Pete Oswald dropping the ridgeline gives you a real feel for the gradient and commitment level required. © Dan Power / shotniseko.com
